ULLMAN BROS.

Anniston, Alabama.

We are glad to note the increased demand for a good stock of bogs in this section. It means that the people here do not propose to longer have their smoke houses in the Northwest, but will hereafter raise their own meat and make their own lard. This means better times in the South.

ANNISTON had the largest holiday trade this season, from the country she has ever had. Of course much of this is due to the liberal manner in which her business men invited this trade through the advertising columns of the REPUBLICAN. There is no doubt but printers ink pays. The most successful business men in the world have long since learned this fact.

The sympathy of the Southern people has been shown in a substantial way during the past few weeks for the thousands of farmers in Nebraska who are on the verge of starvation. While the corn crop up there was a total failure, in the South it has been unusually large, and our people can well afford to contribute from their well stored corn cribs to help relieve the suffering among the people of Nebraska.

The recommendation of Governor Oates to increase the number of judicial circuits in the state to twenty seems to be favorably received by the press and people in nearly every section of the State. If it is true that this increase will lessen the present judicial expense in the state, and afford a more speedy trial to criminals and thus decrease the number of lynchings, the recommendations of the Governor should certainly be enacted into law.

THROUGH the enterprise of the Chicago Herald, the railroad record from Chicago to Atlanta has been lowered by ten hours. The Herald issued a special edition with a write up of the Cotton States and International exposition, and in order to have it on sale in Atlanta the day it was issued, secured a special train, called "The Dixie Hammer," which made the fastest long distance run ever made in the South, covering 733 miles in 16 hours and 37 minutes elapsed time. The average running time was 45 miles an hour.

THE gold reserve in the treasury continues to decrease, and the clamor is again being raised for another issuance of bonds. We thought the gold bugs assured the people that if the purchasing clause of the Sherman bill was repealed that all this withdrawal of gold from the treasury and the necessity for issuing bonds would cease. They also promised that the repeal of the purchasing clause of silver would at once restore confidence, and that it would bring an era of prosperity. But alas for all such promises!

As long as the Secretary of the Treasury holds to a policy which permits an individual to pay his obligation to the Government in silver, and turn right around and demand a gold payment for a claim which he holds against the Government, we need not expect the gold reserve to be kept in tact.

And until a change is made in our present system of finance, we will never have that degree of prosperity that we would have under a different system.

THE Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Times gives the following pen sketch of Alabama's senior Senator:

Senator John T. Morgan of Alabama, the noblest Roman of them all, a typical Senator, a dignified statesman, an encyclopedia of general information, a scholar, a philosopher, a manly man and one who is acquainted with grief, for he has lost some of his best-beloved kindred, has been re-elected by the Legislature of the State which has long delighted to honor him, and has thereby honored itself, will spend his Christmas day in Washington, where he has quite unpretentious apartments. He is a remarkable man—vigorous, independent, and every way strong and forceful. It is a pity that there are not more men like him in public life. With malice towards none, but with charity for all, he sometimes utters the most sarcastic sentences, which make his opponents wince. It was he who spoke in such terrible denunciation of Presidential interference in legislative affairs, concluding his remarks by saying: "The clock strikes in the White House and the cuckoos here come out of their boxes to tell us the time of day."

FRESH NEW GOODS.

Instead of running our stock off as is usual at this season of the year, we are compelled to keep goods coming all the time.

Every department is brightened up this week by the addition of NEW GOODS. If you want fresh, bright goods, just from the mills, come to us.

It goes without saying prices must be right, or we would not be doing the business.

928 Noble st. Anniston, Ala.

It is estimated that the cold weather of this and last week will cut the orange crop in Florida short by a million boxes.

The fact that cotton can now be bought in Liverpool for delivery in October and November of next year for 3 1/2 pence, which is equal to 4 1/2 cents in the South, should deter the farmers of this section from planting a large acreage of the fleecy staple. There is no money in growing it at four cents.

This delightful climate during both winter and summer, the valuable natural resources yet undeveloped and undiscovered, should make this section more attractive to capitalists of the North and Northwest than any other section in the United States.

COL THOMAS R. ROULHAC, who has been appointed by Governor Oates Judge of the new eleventh Circuit, is one of Alabama's most intellectual and cultured citizens, and his friends over the State appreciate the honor conferred upon him.

The General Assembly will meet again on 22nd of January. There are questions to be considered by the present legislature which are of the most vital interest to the State and in the consideration of these questions, all partisanship should as far as possible be placed aside, and the law maker should do what his intelligence conscientiously teaches him is best for the State and its people.

The people of Alabama are in favor of all parties having candidates to be voted for at an election having proper representatives in the management of the election at every voting place in the State, and want to see the amendments made to our election law recommended by Governor Oates. Let each party have the right to select an inspector, clerk and marker of ballots. Then our elections will not only be fairly conducted, but the people will believe them to be fair.

While the people from all sections are crying out for legislation which will afford some relief from the present panic, it seems to be the purpose of the present congress to again adopt a do-nothing policy, and let the country go to ruin.

When the Carlisle currency bill was presented the Democrats had a fine opportunity to regain many of the voters who were lost to the Democratic party as the result of the last session of congress; but instead of promptly passing the Carlisle bill, it is generally believed that there will be no financial legislation by this congress.

MANY of the leading papers of the State are earnest in the demand for the amendments to our present election law which the REPUBLICAN has favored since it has been under its present management.

The Opelika Post in discussing the needed changes in our present law, says: All honest men agree that honest elections are necessary to the maintenance of Republican institutions. Next in importance to honest elections is public confidence in the electoral system. To secure these important ends, partisanship should be exclusive as far as possible from control in the management of elections. So long as the entire control of elections is committed as now, to the board of election officers, so long will partisanship, if led by unscrupulous men, find an avenue to fraud and so long will that party not represented in the management suspect and cry fraud, even though every thing be fair.

The law should, therefore, be changed so as to require the board of election officers to appoint inspectors of election and clerks to be named by the two leading political parties; the dominant party in each county to name two and the minority party to name one inspector.

Furthermore, as assistants are necessary for these officers who are unable to prepare their own ballots, the law should be amended so as to require the appointment of markers selected by the respective political parties and markers to be sworn as other election officers.

With these amendments the law would be financially perfected. The perpetration of fraud would be difficult and hazardous. The machinery for a fair election would be provided and all reasonable grounds of complaint would be removed.

A Card.

Finding that the increasing business of the REPUBLICAN will demand more of my time than I can give from my professional duties, I have associated with me in the publication of the REPUBLICAN Mr. J. P. Crook, who will give his entire time to the interest of the paper.

The new editor brings with him to the work of journalism a fine literary and legal education, a love and talent for news-paper work, and I feel confident that he will not only greatly improve the REPUBLICAN, but will soon take a place among the ablest journalists of the State.

T. W. AYERS.

THE Age Herald gives the following sensible reasons why the New England cotton mills are coming to the south. First, the New England manufacturers have realized the fact that the mill must be near the cotton field and thus save the freight of $5 a bale.

Second, cheaper labor can be obtained in the South. The working classes can live more economically in the South than in the North, because the weather is milder and not so much fuel and clothing is necessary. The days are longer and more work can be done by daylight, thus saving the expense of lighting the mill.

Third, the New England cotton mills export a large amount of their cotton goods to the warm countries South of us, and by locating in the south they get nearer their market.

Fourth, the climatic conditions of the South give a finer texture to the cloth.

Fifth, the laws of the Southern States are more favorable to manufacturers.

Sixth, coal is cheaper in the mineral belt of the South. The Northern mills pay $1 a ton for their coal, while coal from the Birmingham mines is sold within a radius of 300 miles at $1 a ton.

GOVERNOR OATES returned a few days since from a visit to Washington, and in an interview said: "I am afraid that the present Congress will do but little if anything more. I have no hopes of the passage of the Carlisle bill. In fact we are not going to have any currency legislation. The Nicaragua Canal bill will also be defeated."

Governor Oates is a shrewd observer, and we believe that he is right in his conclusions.

The only hope which was held out to the people in the way of relief from the work of this session of Congress was that it would pass a good currency bill and arrange for the completion of the Nicaragua canal.

It now seems almost settled that it will do neither, and so far as the good which will result to the country from anything it will do is as well as adjourn and no longer keep the people in suspense.

It is humiliating to contemplate the fact that with a large majority in Congress the Democrats have not kept the pledges made the people in their last national convention.

While the plank in the platform on the silver question may admit of a double construction; that plank which says "We recommend that the prohibitory ten per cent tax on State bank issues be repealed, does not leave us in doubt as to what it means, but pledges the Democratic party if placed in power to repeal this prohibitory tax on State banks.

The people of the South were disappointed when the last session of Congress failed to repeal this tax, but took courage when Secretary Carlisle submitted his currency bill embodying the repeal of the prohibitory tax on State banks.

But it now seems that they are again to be disappointed.

This disappointment to Democrats is more disheartening from the fact that it is the last opportunity their party will have "for at least two years" and possibly many years.

It does seem that Democratic Congressmen and Senators cannot fail to see that no good can result to the Democratic party by this doing nothing policy; and that the love of party and love of country would stimulate them to action.

The burglars continue to get in their work in Jacksonville. On last Monday night they broke the glass in the front window of the store of Hammond & Crook, in which the Southern Express office was kept, and entered the building and relieved the express company of the burden of taking care of $110 in cash. The money was in iron safe, but unfortunately the safe was fastened only with the day lock, and without any trouble the burglar made his way into the safe and carried the cash drawer.

He carried the drawer to the office of Martin & Priory, packed the money in a box, and left the drawer.

Far away in the wilds of Alabama there nestled among the hills not many years ago a tiny village which you may know as "my settlement."

Going there in young girlhood and growing up among its staple-natured, noble-hearted people, I am warmly attached to the place and the many pleasant associations which cluster around its homely name.

My first acquaintance with the town was in the days when the great iron horse, that precursor of modern civilization had not penetrated the surrounding "forests primeval," and the nearest outpost of "the wide, wide world" was more than thirty miles away. To reach the village these long, stony miles had, of course, to be covered by private conveyance, and that usually the primitive covered wagon.

After more than a day spent in our mule-drawn chariot driven by a noble character who rejoiced in the name of Uncle Plant, we reached our journey's end, and I first saw the wonderful place which my childhood had pictured as perilously near the end of the world.

In all the settlement there were not more than a dozen painted houses and but one bay-window, which, in the original sense of the word, was the admiration of the entire country.

Planes were next to unknown, but organs were distressingly numerous, and "singings" the favorite form of social gathering.

A debating club had recently been organized, and one of its meetings was the first entertainment I attended. The subject for discussion was "Resolved, That the negro has greater cause than the Indian for complaint against the whites."

Years have effaced the memory of the decision, but one point made was indelibly impressed upon my mind: "William Penn went over to Africa and wrung the poor little children away from their parents."

Not long after we had moved into our new home, the other members of the family being absent, I left to keep house with only a visiting young lady for company, some countryman riding by, we were attracted by the sound of the piano, and, immediately dismounting, they seated themselves upon the ground just outside the gate. The music ceased, they entered, and asked us to play for them. Upon our replying that we were only practicing and could not really play, they insisted, the spokesman saying, "We heard you play in the ground just outside the gate, and now we come in for some music, and now we want to have it." So, without further parley, I stumbled over one simple piece, and was then requested to play my "favorite." That having been done to the best of my trembling ability, they rose and the leader said, "Well, you've improved some since we came in; you played that last piece better than the first. Good evening! we'll call again when you're in better practice."

Among our duties in those early days was a dance which was held on New Year's day. We were at a loss to understand the question when she explained, "I send you a sign" - pointing to "Home Protection" over the doorway, and I thought I'd stop and see if I had any thing I wanted."

A young girl, Eliza, carried to our house one day some articles which my mother wished to buy, and not having the money at hand she gave her an order on my father's note. Referring, of course, to her rather peculiar surname, my mother said, "How do you spell your name?" She replied with great earnestness, spelling twice very deliberately, "L-I, L-I, z-e-r, z-e-r, L-I-z-e."

The little boy from whose mother we bought our milk and butter, looked very exultant one day when he proudly informed us that Pap had done built us a house."

Dear mother, always rejoicing in the happiness of others, and eager to increase it as much as possible, I indulged with much interest, "How many rooms has it?"

"The solid wood gave the startling reply, "Nary nu. It's just one big house."

The years passed on; and my settlement took on more and more the forms of modern civilization, though they did not lose what they had had before, the kind hearts and simple faith which are more than Norman blood.

Two great iron ways of traffic having pierced the forests, the silent savor for the sweet voices of the feathered songsters and the bay-lings of the deep-mottled hounds pursuing with their masters the numerous "gathered monarchs of the waste," the Arcadian manners of the earlier days were somewhat modified to suit the altered condition of affairs in the village.

Old houses were repaired, remodelled and painted; new dwellings replaced the bare, reiled walls of its house of worship; another, not to be outdone built, a substantial new brick church; still a third was organized, and, although few in numbers, erected a beautiful little temple to God. The old two-room school-house, a ragged beggar by the roadside, was replaced by a neat eight-room building, with patent desks for pupils and teachers, a large bell, nice piano, and other conveniences. A tennis court was laid out and the young people added the racket to their old-time favorite the mallet. The village lads and maidens were sent away to school, the parents of teen accompanying them the whole or a part of the way to the distant seats of learning; all returned with their mental horizon much broadened. They became more and more a reading people, both of books and of newspapers, until it could no longer truthfully be said of them -

"They never looked beyond their native hills."

And the years passed on. The last September I saw the "bees to the wild rose" returning to east my lot again amid the scenes of "my little town."

Unlike most small towns of the South during these days of financial unrest, "my settlement" had not been badly hit by the hard times, but having the winter before lost most of its business houses in a disastrous conflagration, had steadfastly set to work replacing the old frame buildings by handsome brick structures with stone, iron, and glass front. A movement is now on foot to erect an elegant church instead of the humble building which was so lovingly papered in the years ago.

When other and perhaps sadder towns were, on the strength of the hard times, excusing themselves from such duties, the Methodist of "my settlement," by heroic efforts, succeeded in paying in full all the Conference demands upon them, together with the salaries and a snug margin besides of both their Presiding Elder and pastor.

A poor family in the suburbs, suffering from the long-continued illness of several members, has been the special care of the ladies. Two going each day for weeks with necessities and dainties for the sick and the well.

The good people of all the churches united, and, on Thanksgiving night, gave a supper for the joint benefit of Alabama's three Orphanages; thus making warm the bodies and glad the hearts of many fatherless, motherless bairns.

So compassionate indeed are the citizens of "my settlement," and so well is the fact known in the surrounding country that not three days in a week pass that a subscription for some object of charity is not circulated upon its streets.

Yet, with all its works of mercy, the place is mutually fond of social gaieties. The young people are much together and love and marriage among their number are by no means infrequent.

While the home girls are never slighted, so attentive are the young gentlemen to a visiting young lady that her sojourn is, if possible, lengthened and repeated, and she always thinks of "my settlement" as one of the most delightful places she ever knew.

Elaborate entertainments are occasionally given, with music, games, music, and refreshments from "the cities beyond."

Delightful excursions are made by select parties to the natural and artificial wonders in the regions round about; but most of all the people enjoy the informal gatherings, which are of such frequent occurrence in the village.

In my dear old "settlement" many and varied are the plans which are now being made for the royal observance of the this the very best time of all the glad year.

For the children, rich and poor, high and low, there are to be "love's dear blossoms" covering them, three wonderful fruit and toy-bearing Christmas trees; the two leading schools will have merry entertainments, two evenings are filled by the gay Social Club, to say nothing of the grand Christmas night party, and the many small but happy gatherings for dinners and teas.

God bless "my settlement" and may he give great joy to it and to all!

And may the glorified Christ, who, as the babe of Bethlehem came into and redeemed this sad old world, so touch through this, his lowly season and evermore our hearts that one lives may but receive the steps the angels sang.

"Glorious to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

MURDER.

YOUNG STOVALL CONFESSES THAT HE KILLED JAMES MARTIN.

Says He Shot Him Because He Believed Martin Would Kill His Sister.

The particulars of the killing of James Martin in East 14 in January 1894, are well known to the people of Calhoun county.

He was sitting around his fire-side with his wife and children, after supper when some one came and emptied the contents of the barrel of a shot gun into his person, which, without warning, sent his soul into eternity.

Young Stovall, a brother of Martin's wife, who had not been on friendly terms with Martin, was suspected to have committed the crime, and was placed under arrest the day following the murder, and after a preliminary trial was committed to jail, where he is still confined.

The evidence against him was all circumstantial, and many believed that he could not be convicted.

But last Wednesday a representative of the REPUBLICAN was told that Stovall had broken down and made a full and open confession. He went to the jail and told Stovall that if it was as he had confessed the crime, that he would be glad for him to make a statement for the readers of the REPUBLICAN.

The prisoner seemed perfectly calm, and made the statement: "On the night of the 14th day of January, 1894, I went to the house of James Martin and shot him through the window with a double barrel shot gun. I placed the gun right near the window, and it may have touched the sash."

Left my father's house with gun about six and seven o'clock at night and went directly to Martin's house. When I first got to his house Martin was sitting in front and near middle of fire place. I waited five or ten minutes, when he moved to corner of fire place, and I then shot him.

After shooting Martin, I went back home and told my father that I had killed Martin. I then went to bed and remained at home until next morning when I went to Elowah county, where my brother was teaching, to tell him that Martin had been killed, and that my father had sent for him to come home.

My brother and I started home from Elowah, and I was arrested on the way.

In answer to a question as to when and why he decided to kill Martin, Stovall said:

"I decided to kill Martin the day I shot him. I killed him because I believed he expected to kill his wife, who was my sister."

In answer to a question as to whether Mrs. Martin knew of his intention to kill her husband, he said she knew nothing of it.

For Burghlar.

For the past several weeks the REPUBLICAN has given an account of one house after another which had been burglarized in Jacksonville.

The officers have been doing all in their power to detect the burglars, but until last Thursday had not secured sufficient evidence to justify an arrest.

Last Thursday George Chamption and other members of the Chamption family were seen spending much more money here for whiskey than was believed they had earned honorably, and it was believed the money they were spending was a part of the money taken from the express office a few nights ago.

Warrants were sworn out and George Chamption, Jake Chamption, Next Chamption, Walt Chamption, Henry Chamption, Tom Chamption, and Will Gilly arrested and placed in jail.

When arrested, George Chamption had on pair of shoes taken from M. H. Rowan's store the night it was burglarized.

The pistol taken from post office was found in Jake Chamption's trunk.

Razor and soap taken from C. J. Porter's found in possession of Walt Chamption.

A check taken from the money drawer of John Ramagnano was found on the person of Henry Chamption.

Handkerchiefs which were taken from store of Hammond & Crook, where express office was kept, were found in possession of the Champtions, and also a punch taken from the office of C. D. Martin, where safe drawer was left the night the express office was burglarized.

Jake Chamption has confessed to breaking into store of C. J. Porter. There was no doubt but the right men have been captured, and it is hoped that we will not be further troubled with burglaries.

Tribute of Respect.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to call to her eternal rest, Miss Della Coker, a cherished member of Middleton Sunday School.

Therefore be it Resolved: That we the members of the Sunday School desire to record the respect, esteem and love with which we regarded our departed sister.

Resolved 2. That we tender to her bereaved father, sisters and brothers, our condolence and hearty sympathy in their loss, and rejoice with them in the assurance of her blessedness in the presence of her risen Lord.

Resolved 3. That these resolutions be published in the several papers and that a copy of them be sent to the family of Bro. M. N. Coker.

Ammon Hot Blast, Chamberland, Presbyterians, Alabama Baptists please copy.

Dover, Gro., Miss Fannie Brothers, Miss Sallie, Meharg, Committee.

Hon. J. D. Hammond, resigned the agency of the Southern Express company several weeks ago, and on last Tuesday Mr. S. R. Wilkerson was appointed as agent for this place. The office has been moved to the store of C. J. Porter, and Will A. Wilkerson will have charge of the office.

We regretted exceedingly to hear of the burning of the residence of Mr. Columbus Whiteside. It was a splendid two story building, and was not insured. All the furniture and the other valuables on the second floor was lost. Miss Martie, the daughter of Mr. Whiteside, roomed on the second floor, and her entire wardrobe was destroyed, together with many articles which she greatly regretted to lose.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insure an effectual cure. For sale by dealers.

We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Fannie C. T. Dickie, daughter of Washington Dickie, who died in this county on the 25th day of December, 1894, in the 27th year of her life. Truly Mr. Dickie has been sorely bereaved, as in the last three years he has lost by death his wife and four children.

Carlton Corwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy. I can recommend it to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough with the best results." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

One of the most delightful entertainments given during the Christmas holidays was the reception given by the Misses Alexander on Main street. It was given in honor of their brother, Mr. Joe Alexander of Montgomery, who was here on a visit.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. CHURCH, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Spenser, Catawba, O., had a five large Fever sores on his leg. Doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at all Drug Stores.

RHEUMATISM in the back, shoulders, hips, ankles, elbows or wrists, caused by accumulation of acid in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla neutralizes the acid and cures rheumatism.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless and reliable.

ALABAMIANS Who Have Expressed Opinions During the Month of October.

Mr. Thomas W. Haisten, Buck Horn, Ala., October 2, 1894: "We are still pleased with the Electropoise which has been in use in our family now more than three years."

Mrs. Fannie C. Starke, Perote, Ala., October 1, 1894: "I still use the Electropoise and receive great benefit from it, and we do not have any doctors bill to pay now."

Mr. T. H. Holbert, Decatur, Ala., October 1, 1894: "I endorse every thing that I have heretofore said about the Electropoise, and am always telling some one what it has done in my family."

Rev. L. A. Darsey, Decatur, Ala., October 2, 1894: "The Electropoise is a grand discovery. I have two, and never intend to give them up."

Mrs. W. P. Nelson, Sunshine, Ala., October 4, 1894: "I have never failed to effect a cure in every case of disease I have ever treated, and they have been numerous. The Electropoise has no more ardent admirer than I."

Mr. C. A. J. Hollingsworth, Mink, Ala., October 18, 1894: "I still think the Electropoise is a great curative agent, and use it for all ailments in my family, and recently cured a severe attack of dysentery in two days with it."

Mr. J. McKee Gould, Boligee, Ala., October 1, 1894: "After four years' experience with the Electropoise my faith in it is unshaken."

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzzard, of West-Montgomery, Marion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

Burning Pain Erysipelas in Face and Eyes

Inflammation Subdued and Tortures Ended by Hood's.

"I am so glad to be relieved of my tortures that I am willing to tell the benefits I have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. In April and May, I was afflicted with erysipelas in my face and eyes, which spread to my throat and neck. I tried dozens of treatments and remedies, but there was no permanent alleviation of the burning, torturing pain, peculiar to this complaint. I began to use Hood's Sarsaparilla and Felt Marked Relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued to improve until, when I had taken four bottles, I was completely cured, and felt that all the pains and symptoms of that terrible disease had forever vanished." Mrs. E. E. OTTAWA, Hillsboro, Wisconsin.

Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient, yet easy in action. Sold by all druggists.

J. F. McFarland exhibited a red rash on the street this week which was planted last August that now weighs 64 lbs.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Wilkins, mother of Dan W. Wilkins, who died near Jacksonville, December 23, 1894. She was a most excellent woman, and was respected and loved by all who knew her.

In the death of Mr. J. R. McElreath, whose death is recorded by our Weaver's correspondent, Calhoun county loses a valuable citizen, the community in which he lived a useful citizen, the church a Christian worker, and his family a gentle, loving father and husband.

The cold, snowy weather has been rather unpleasant here for the past week, it has not been so unpleasant as in many other places. Even at Gadsden all trains were stopped on account of the snow, and great loss of cattle is reported over there as a result of the cold weather.

Miss Katie Wilson of Jenifer, has been visiting the family of Mr. Jno. H. Hall this week.

Miss Welsh of Selma, was here last week visiting Miss Hannah Crook.

Mrs. P. Rowan has gone to Montgomery on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Gaston.

Miss Hannah Crook returned last week from Chester, S. C., where she had been to attend the marriage of Miss Newton McCraw.

Rev. L. G. Hames came up from Selma and enjoyed one of the splen- did Christmas dinners, which his mother knows so well how to have prepared.

On Monday evening a Christmas tree for the children was given at the home of brother Horton, much to the pleasure of the children.

It is feared that the cat, crop is damaged by the unusual cold weather of the past few days.

Mr. J. R. McElreath died at 4:30 p. m. on the 1st inst., and was buried at Union church on the 3rd inst. Truly it can be said of him, a good man has gone to his reward.

Alexandria.

Christmas has been very quiet.

The supper given for the benefit of the school, on Tuesday night was quite a success.

The Methodist Sunday school gave quite a pleasant entertainment on Sunday evening before Christ- mas.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was a party at Mr. Norris Woodruff's.

Miss Maggie Woodruff of Gad- sdon spent Christmas with her brother in Alexandria.

Mr. Edgar Wilkins who has been buying cotton in Gaffney, S. C., has returned to spend the holidays with his family.

Dr. J. E. Crook is on a visit to his sister in Spartanburg, S. C.

Mr. Julius Sheild, a former resi- dent of this county, has returned for a short visit to his sister, Mrs. Clark.

Messrs. Ed Sheild, Charley Liles and Gus Martin, three of our most excellent young men, leave Wed- nesday for Texas, greatly to the regret of their many friends. May good luck attend them.

Mr. Edward Liles and his sister, Miss Mollie, after spending the holidays with their brother at this place, have returned to their home in Columbia.

Mr. Frank Wakefield has re- turned from Collinsville where he went to attend the marriage of a friend.

Tampa.

"Blessings brighten as they take their flight." To be deprived of the REPUBLICAN for two weeks, causes its many readers to appre- ciate it for more than a month's unpaid subscription would afford.

The Christmas festivities having passed, and the New Year made his bow and entered up on his duties, despite the severity of the weather, finds us all with renewed appetites and a large volume of good resolutions, ready to repeat the errors of the past as in by gone years, thus fol- lowing the example of our present "irresponsible congress," whose attention is now more devoted to "Turkey" than the American ques- tion or the welfare of their "be- loved constituents."

The Christmas tree exercises at the Tampa church passed off pleas- antly—to both old and young—and Christmas night brought the merry maskers around with their musi- cal instruments and antics.

The "beautiful snow," is good for the rabbit humpers, but bad for poor bunny. A "Toisogann" was built by one of our pleasure loving citizens—and the steep hillside utilized for the "lightning slide," which nearly took the breath out of some of the older ones, and laid up a young fellow with a sprained knee. He is nursing it though—for an- other slide.

Mr. Will Brittain spent a few days with his parents accompanied by Mr. Davis, of Rock Run.

Miss Ethel Deane came home from Anniston to spend a few days.

We hope the REPUBLICAN and its readers have had a happy Christ- mas and will have a prosperous New Year.

I forgot to say the mercury regis- tered below zero.

Piedmont.

The following communication from Piedmont was intended for our last issue, but was received too late.—Ed.

Our municipal election passed off quietly and every one seems satisfied by the result.

E. D. McElreath was elected Mayor by a small majority, and the same council remains with two ex- ceptions.

Mr. J. C. Wickes and Miss An- nie Moody went over to Atlanta last Tuesday to attend the marriage of Miss Clara Moody and Mr. Frank Smiley.

Mrs. R. S. Perry and little son left for Philadelphia last week, the home of Mrs. Perry's parents. Mr. Perry will join them before Christ- mas.

J. Latham Tatnall is due in Piedmont, so rumor saith, on the dawn train to day.

Mr. C. P. Newman and family of Rock Run, are at Mr. Steves.

Nauvoo's Creek.

Married, on the 25th of Decem- ber, 1894, at the residence of Sam- uel Morgan, Esq., Mr. Thomas L. Barden to Miss Maggie C. Davis, All of Nauvoo's Creek valley.

Mr. Borden is a popular and worthy young man, and the bride possesses all the characteristics of suitable helpmate for her deserving husband.

Ladiga.

December 31st.—The last day of 1894. "Have we all spent this year as we should? It seems I hear" (the answers,—no, no! Let us re- solve that at the close of 1895 it can be said of us, "Thou hast done what thou couldst."

Christmas passed off very quietly and pleasantly here.

Master Johnie Graham, who has been in school in Atlanta, Ga., after spending Christmas with his father here, has returned to Atlanta.

Will Cooper, a very prominent young man of Atlanta, spent several days with relatives here last week.

Little Miss Nina Graham was with the home folks last week.

Let Savage, who is attending school at Jacksonville, was here among relatives during the holi- days.

Messrs. F. M. Savage, John Akin, J. C. Graham and S. D. Savage were all visitors to Rome, Ga., last week.

Mr. Den Savage went "down" to Anniston last week on a visit.

Mrs. Maggie Wilson is visiting in Anniston and Oxford this week.

Little Marie Graham was in Pied- mont Saturday and Sunday last.

Mr. Arthur Brewster of Pied- mont, spent Sunday here with rela- tives.

J. D. Amberson and wife were visitors at Handle last week.

The Misses Casey of near Goshen, were the guests of Miss Eula Ste- wart last week.

The small boy has been in his glory here to-day throwing snow balls. The snow here is about four inches deep.

Peck's Mill.

Since I last wrote the REPUBLICAN there have been several mar- riages in this community. Oliver Thompson to Miss Eva Hindman; Henry Fleming to Miss Vina Ross; Charley Fleming to Miss Mollie Crow; Mr. Dodgins to Miss Howell; Mr. Stovall to Miss Howell; Phil Dickie to Miss Griffin; Lee Dickie to Miss Britton; Joe Hutto to Miss Lila Vice.

The people of the community wish for all of them great success.

The people over here all had a pleasant time during the Christmas holidays.

H. H. Gray of Attalia is visiting his father here this week.

The new Methodist preacher for the Glaciere circuit has arrived with his small family,—not in num- ber. Two rooms will be added to the parsonage.

J. W. Williams has added a new twist mill to his gin and grinds every Saturday.

Colvin's Gap.

About six inches of snow lay on the ground Monday morning.

N. W. McLean and W. C. Hol- lingsworth and their families left for Texas last week.

Nearly all the farmers in this vicinity have plenty of corn, meat and sorghum for the present year, and some have more than enough for their own use.

There is great financial distress among the people, and the cry is for more money. Why does not congress establish a financial sys- tem that will put plenty of money in circulation?

The REPUBLICAN is right in ad- vocating such changes in our elec- tion laws as will secure fair elec- tions. A very large majority of all parties favor fair elections. If there were frauds in the August election, let them be investigated, and let whoever got the most legal votes have the offices.

Fergusville.

The young people of this vicinity have enjoyed many socials dur- ing Christmas week.

Master Charles Weathers has returned to Anniston to occupy a position in Mr. Eads' book store.

Mr. Bart Simpson is talking of going to Texas.

Mr. D. L. Simpson is clerking in Anniston, on 16th street.

Messrs. Clements & Adolph will start a steam saw mill in a few days, on the South side of Cape Creek near Log's mill pond.

Mr. Jas. A. Ferguson and wife are visiting relatives at Rock Run station this week.

Business all suspended, and child hunting is the order of the day during the snow.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fetter, of Canabohatche, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results. Follow it, user that he would not be without it. It is pre- cious. G. A. Beckman Druggist, Canabohatche, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy that he has used. It is his family for eight years, and he has never failed to find it effec- tive. I feel sure why every family should have a bottle of it. It is a household treasure. It is sold at all drug stores, and costs 25c and 50c.

THE Jacksonville REPUBLICAN got out a big Christmas issue. It delights our soul to see it prosper. —Baltimore Times and News.

THIS recent freeze in Florida has sent the price of oranges up kiting. Now we insist that it will be manifestly unfair to charge this increase in the price of oranges up to the Democratic party, but are prepared to see the party confronted with the charge.

WE hope that the county alliance now in session at Four Mile will take the necessary steps to place Calhoun upon an agricultural boom this year. It will do well to impress the fact that cotton is now being sold for delivery next fall at 44 cents, and that there is no money in raising it in this section at that price.

A SPECIAL from Huntsville states that during the past two weeks there has been shipped to the north-west for sale more than half a million bushels of corn by river from Guntersville and Bridgeport alone. This begins to sound like Alabama had gotten on the right track and that she was pulling into the station of prosperity.

MANY persons during the last few weeks have taken advantage of our liberal offer to furnish the REPUBLICAN and the Atlanta Constitution one year for $1.25. All our present subscribers who pay $1.25 by the 15th of February can get the REPUBLICAN one year from time we took charge of paper, and the Constitution one year from the date of their payment. Now is the time to take advantage of this offer.

THE civilized world is now watching with eager eyes the conflict between Japan and China. Upon the beginning of hostilities, the idea gained ground that Japan was making a great mistake and was underestimating the strength of her foe. When Japan had proved victor in Korea, and began to push forward into China proper, wise ones shook their heads and said that so small a body of troops would be surrounded and annihilated. It seems, however, that Japan even with her comparatively small army is doing all the surrounding and all the annihilating. She has swept one victory following close upon another on towards Chinas capital, Port Arthur, the strongest fortress in China, and the last great barrier between the invaders and Peking, has fallen on easy prey, and now the great empire of Asia lies bound and gagged, as it were, begging for peace, willing to accept any terms Japan shall dictate.

THE Rev. Sam P. Jones of Georgia who has gained such a reputation as a preacher and lecturer has entered a new field—that of an economic writer. His work in this line is now appearing under copyright in a number of American journals. His last production for the year just ended discusses the subject of taxes, and the Rev. Sam P. proclaims himself most uncompromisingly in favor of "retrenchment and reform." He says that ninety-nine households out of every one hundred in our country have set the example and that it is high time our representatives, senators, and other public officials should follow their lead. He says we must have equalization, and to illustrate draws upon the condition of affairs in his own town. We quote him: "We must have equalization of this burden. I understand that our merchants all told give in fifty-six thousand dollars of merchandise on which they are taxed and yet we have scores of merchants who carry from ten to thirty thousand dollars of stock, and one merchant, I understand, the actual invoice of whose stock showed eight thousand dollars, appears on the tax list at about fifteen hundred dollars. There alone is a discrepancy of sixty-five hundred dollars. The personality of our town appears on the tax digest valued at one hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars. This includes a national bank with a capital of fifty thousand dollars and a private bank with a capital of forty thousand dollars. And the household and kitchen furniture, horses, vehicles, jewelry and all combined are eighty-four thousand dollars, including three first-class livery stables. These things must be looked into. Personally I have no objection to any man making false statements and false returns if he sees proper to do so, until those false statements and returns shall put additional burden upon others who would be honest and deal fair with the government, state, county and municipality."

FRESH NEW GOODS.

Instead of running our stock off as is usual at this season of the year, we are compelled to keep goods coming all the time.

Every department is brightened up this week by the addition of NEW GOODS. If you want fresh, bright goods, just from the mills, come to us.

THE latest political news in Georgia is that the Democrats in the county elections last week carried the State by a greatly increased majority, and that Tom Watson's daily in Atlanta has suspended.

As David has broken bread with Grover, it is now generally believed that the unexpected will happen in Washington. While these two men continue to wine and dine the people will play the role of Wilkins Micawber and wait for something to turn up.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in New Zealand to have the Government encourage the introduction of reading books, in the schools of the agricultural section, which shall be devoted to agricultural matters, such as the management of live stock, the cultivation of all sorts of vegetables and crops, the subject of fertilization, and the use of improved implements.

FROM all indications many of the Democratic congressmen care very little as to what becomes of the future of the Democratic party. They are not willing that the Democrats should get together on any currency bill as a party measure, but seem to prefer to keep up an irreconcilable division and let the present administration go down in history as a failure. Men who love the principles of Democracy, and who believe the principles maintained by Jefferson and Jackson are best for the interest of this country, are thoroughly disgusted with the do-nothing policy which the present Congress is carrying out.

CAPITAL punishment in the state of Michigan has been abolished, and now when one man murders another, he at least has the satisfaction of knowing that imprisonment for life is the worst punishment that can be inflicted. It seems that since the passage of this law doing away with the gallows, the number of murders are on the increase and there is a possibility that the next legislature of Michigan will declare neck breaking again in order. When the legislature does this she will in order to be abreast of the times be obliged to go over to Connecticut and get the right to use the new hanging machine recently adopted in that state.

THE year of 1894 is now numbered among the things of the past, and we now enter upon duties and responsibilities of a new year.

In taking a retrospective view of the old year, we are forced to confess that all things have not been as we desired them.

Our farms, our mines, our manufacturing industries, our mercantile establishments have not had such an era of prosperity as they enjoyed a few years ago.

Financial depression has been abroad in the land and all trades and professions have felt and shown the evil effects produced by his presence. He has placed his cold hands against many industries which in former years were prosperous and they have tottered and fallen to the ruin of the men who attempted to uphold them against the pressure of this unwelcome monster.

While this panic has caused us to deprive ourselves of many of the luxuries and even comforts of life, yet we have learned from it some valuable lessons, which, if properly applied, may in the future lead us to the goal of becoming a prosperous and happy people.

We have learned that we can not be prosperous and depend upon others to supply us with all we consume, and have gone to work in earnest to raise our own corn, wheat, wool, syrup, and other things we consume.

We have learned that by the means of the credit system we have been living beyond our incomes, that we have been extravagant, and have been promising to pay more than we make. The hard times have taught us to economize and to live within our means.

The effect of these changes in our manner of living and transacting business has been, but for the old debts, to put the people in this section in better condition than they have been for years. They have contracted fewer debts, and have the things necessary to live at home and be independent.

In order to get out of debt it is necessary for us to continue to economize, make at home what we consume and let the cotton crop be a surplus. By continuing on this line, in a few more years this section will hear no more of hard times and the people will be prosperous and happy.

ULLMAN BROS.

Anniston, Alabama.

THE San Francisco Call says it is willing to be wedded to the currency reform, but not with the gold ring.

THE people continue to cry aloud for financial relief, and congress continues to do nothing. Pity but it would adjourn and let the do-nothing members go home and be kept there.

THE manufacturers of New England continue to make arrangements to bring their cotton mills to the South. The advantages of the South for the manufacture of cotton is so decided over any other section, that there can be no question but the cotton goods of this country are to be manufactured in the South.

IN the recent farmers convention held in Jackson, Miss., the farmers of the South are urged to decrease their cotton acreage at least 25 percent. The convention makes the following sensible suggestions:

The over production of cotton is recognized one of the chief evils. This must be corrected or universal bankruptcy will follow. Self-interest must impel the grower to change.

Every farmer is appealed to not to plant so much cotton, a decrease of not less than 25 per cent is recommended; 50 per cent would be better. The farmers should be made self sustaining by planting peas, corn, potatoes, oats, etc., and raising plenty of meat. The tide of immigration turned this way will change methods.

As the trustees have been appointed for the girls industrial school, it is now in order to put in bids for the location of this school.

Of all the places which have been suggested for location, to our mind, Anniston possesses more advantages than any other place suggested.

Anniston is one of the healthiest locations in the State, and girls can come there from any portion of the State without the least danger of having their health impaired from the poisonous effects of malaria; and the long continued fevers which are so common to other places, are almost unknown to the people of Anniston. In fact, a healthier location than Anniston cannot be found in any city in Alabama. This should be an important consideration in the selection of a location for this school.

Anniston's railroad facilities are such as to make her easily reached from all portions of the State.

Her magnificent churches attract the attention of all visitors, and she is noted for the moral and Christian influence of her citizenship.

She has already fully demonstrated that her people take an interest in educational institutions. As a result of this manifested interest, and of her splendid location, we learn the Southern Female University has been more prosperous there than it was at any of its other locations.

In fact, Anniston is not only the "Model City" of the South, but is the ideal place for the location of Alabama's industrial school for girls.

IN the midst of the money famine, industrial stagnation, commercial paralysis, and the consequent universal mutterings of discontent throughout the land, it is consoling to know that there are a few faithful tribesmen of the people who are laboring to relieve their distresses, lighten their burdens, and restore wanted prosperity to the country. We have been handed a letter addressed by that able financier and patriotic citizen, Hon. Jno. T. Milner, of Birmingham, to Hon. J. H. Bankhead, member of congress from Alabama, suggesting the salient features of a currency system, as a substitute for the "Carlsbad plan" which has been virtually defeated by congress through a divided and dissentionary democracy.

From a hasty and cursory reading of Col. Milner's letter, we are favorably impressed with his views. Our objection to his scheme as an entirety, is, that it involves a complete surrender of our financial system to the Federal Government, when we think that the repeal of the 10 per cent state bank tax, and the establishment of state banks of issue, with proper legal restrictions for security; but independent of federal influence or control, would, with free and unlimited coinage of silver, constitute a panacea for all the evils from which we are now suffering. To this we might add, a patriotic execution of the law, providing for the redemption of legal tender notes in coin; that is, in gold or silver at the option of the Government.

THE persistent fight of the Montgomery Advertiser against Capt. Joseph E. Johnston will be answered by the Democracy of Alabama in the same manner as it met the unreasonable opposition of that paper against Senator Morgan.

From expressions which came from press and people in all portions of the State during the last canvass for the State ticket, the Democratic people fully recognize the fact that the Democracy of Alabama owes Capt. Johnston a debt of gratitude for sacrifice he has made for the party in the expenditure of time, talent and money, and they are not disposed to further delay the payment of this obligation.

If the recent expression of the press and people can be relied upon, the Democracy of Alabama will promote Capt. Johnston to any position he asks for.

THE Atlanta Constitution is well known as a cuckoo to Senator Morgan, yet this statement is found in the Washington special matter of issue yesterday:

"The friends of the Nicaragua Canal bill have abandoned hope of passing that at this session. They do not think the Morgan bill will even get through the Senate."

And yet The Advertiser is considered very extreme for not wanting to see fifty Morgans in the Senate, and for considering him an impractical back-number.—Montgomery Advertiser.

If the failure to pass a special bill introduced constitutes an "impractical back-number," then several of the distinguished gentlemen for whom the Advertiser is a cuckoo, should have long since been placed on the "impractical back-number" list. The Advertiser cannot fail to remember some very noticeable failures on the part of its pets to log roll certain measures through the United States congress.

GADSDEN, and the country around her, has great cause for congratulation.

The enterprise exhibited in bringing the Dwight Manufacturing Company to that city is worthy of much praise.

The mill will contain 25,000 spindles, and will consume from 8000 to 10,000 bales of cotton per annum. This means that hundreds of people will be given work and that thousands and tens of thousands of dollars will go into their hands, and into circulation.

Under the plan, proposed, each family is to have a garden attached to the home, and night schools are to be conducted, for the education of the laboring children. In these schools the pupils can acquire a good elementary education.

No man can tell the great good that will come from such a scheme if properly conducted. To the Dwight people Alabama extends a cordial welcome. The southward movement that is now witnessed in the cotton milling industry is a logical one, and we believe that the day is fast approaching when a cotton mill will be in every valley, and a school house on every hill. These are but heritages of the South—birthrights long denied. Why should it not be so?

Where from the Hot Blast, of Monday, that our neighbor thinks well of the County Fair suggested by our correspondent at Chaseville, and says that "All Truth is in deed the man to take hold of the enterprise, and that Anniston is the place to hold the fair."

We are rejoiced to have the Hot Blast speak so favorably of the project, and we trust that our people all over the county will begin now and give the matter their attention.

The Hot Blast says that Anniston is the place for holding the fair. We are not now so much engaged in beating the fair as in having our people take hold of it. We think Anniston is a good location, and we hope that Anniston will lend a great influence to its success.

Of all our population, the farmers need some chance to show what they can do. Our people little thought that Calhoun soils could be made to produce, as they have produced, under the magic of an intensive system, which has been so successfully fostered by Truitt in his distribution of prizes. If Calhoun's cities, towns and villages, her farmers, mechanics, merchants and capitalists, push this enterprise to a successful end, it will be a benefit to every man, woman and child in our borders. It will be an advertisement to these beyond.

This property contains 119 acres. Will sell the entire property, or a three-fifths interest in it. For particulars write Ayers & Crook.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.
H. L. Stevenson was out of town last week.
Dr. Jno. M. Crook went down to Anniston on Monday evening.
Our efficient officer T. M. Roberts was in Birmingham on business last Saturday.
A. P. Ayers, Esq., of Anniston, was here last Tuesday on legal business.
C. E. Bondurant and wife saw Downing in "The Gladiator," Monday evening.
Miss Mary Greer Caldwell, and Miss Emma Fason visited Anniston last week.
Frank P. Crawford has gone to Birmingham, where he has secured a good position.
Robert Downing, who played in Anniston Monday evening, drew quite a number of our young people.
Dr. T. W. Ayers and Jos. J. Arnold attended the entertainment of Miss Yaw in Anniston Friday evening last.
Col. Chas. P. Ball passed down the E. & W. R. R. on his car Saturday evening, and returned Sunday morning.
Miss Hannah Crook left Jacksonville again on Monday for Columbia, Ga., where she goes for a visit to relatives and friends.
D. T. Young of Weavers dropped in to see us Monday, and while here subscribed for the REPUBLICAN and Constitution.
Miss Goldie Ayers returned to Rome, Ga., on Monday last, where she goes to resume her studies at Shorter College.
Henry Lanford, of Alexandria, was up to see us on Wednesday. He dropped in, he said, to pay for the REPUBLICAN for the next year. Glad to see Henry.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Mrs. Clara Walker is visiting relatives in Gadsden.
Joe Francis of New York, went over to Birmingham Wednesday.
We regret to learn of the death of Mr. A. L. Dickert, who died at his home in Eufaula last Tuesday.
W. L. Burns, who has been confined to his room for several weeks, was on the streets Tuesday.
Rev. Mr. Millichampe will conduct services at the Episcopal Church on next Sunday, Jan'y. 20th.
Esquire E. M. Reid was in to see us Thursday. He has been quite sick recently, and we are glad to see him able to be out again.
Married, Jan'y. 13th, by Rev. W. S. Griffin, at the residence of the bride's father at Fergusonville, Mr. J. M. Loyd to Miss Cleo Ferguson.

Miss Ida Montgomery, who has been here for several weeks on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Gordon Frank, left Tuesday for Iron City, where she will visit friends.
Forney Williams, B. E. Frank, Ed. McCormick, Frank Martin, Chas. Wilkerson, Will Wilkerson, Chavis Woodruff and Chas. McGinnis drove down to Anniston Monday evening to see Downing.
Mrs. C. E. Bondurant, with Miss Lane, Miss Goldie Ayers, Miss Dolie Lane and Miss Ida Crook, heard Miss Yaw in her Grande Concerte, at Noble Street Opera House last week.
Commissioners Coker, DeArman, Palmer and Skelton have been here this week selected men to have the roads of the county worked this year, and looking after other interests of the county.
John Ramagano gave a most elegant dining last week complimentary to Mess. Caldwell, Rowland, Privett, Roberts and Clark for the splendid work they did in detecting the men who committed the recent burglaries here.
At a meeting of the Calhoun County Medical Society in Anniston last Tuesday, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. J. F. Davis; Vice-President, Dr. W. A. Smith; Treasurer, Dr. E. C. Anderson; Censor, Dr. T. W. Ayers.
The will of the late Hon. W. P. Cooper has been filed in the Probate Judge's office. It directs that the property be divided equally between his five children. W. H. Cooper is named as executor.
We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Palace Shoe Store, Anniston, Ala. This establishment carries a perfect line of foot-wear as can be found in Alabama. They do a large business, and are therefore enabled to make the liberal offer contained in this week's advertisement.
The stock law election in Beat 12 last Tuesday, resulted in a vote of 104 to 3 in favor of stock running at large. The stock law men declined to vote, and have filed contest questioning the jurisdiction of the court to order a second election. The contest will be heard on the 25th inst.

White Plains.
The continued cold, wet weather has interfered with farm work, and stopped the school-going children.
Despite the bad weather, our people remain in good health and are as happy and contented as any people in all the land.
Dr. Newman, our presiding elder, had a respectable congregation last Sunday, but as the weather was. He gave us a fine sermon and all felt well paid for the little expense in going to and from church.
The quarterly conference on Saturday was attended by Messrs. Weems and Skelton of Jacksonville.
The Spring term of the Talladega District High School will open next Monday. We hope to see a full attendance. People should not let the cry of hard times hinder the education of the children.
Last Tuesday our village was alarmed again by the cry of fire. It was discovered that Mr. Watson's house was on fire. Happily, however, help was at hand and it was put out before much damage was done.
Mr. Howe, who left Calhoun about ten years ago, and went to North Carolina, has returned and will make this his future home.
Mr. Birmingham, one of Clay county's best citizens, has cast his lot with us. He has an interesting family and will be quite an addition to our town.
A new arrival at Prof. Smith's also. The first daughter, and he is happy.
Ayers & Crook are a strong team and we expect great things of the REPUBLICAN this year. Success to them.

FROM ALL SECTIONS OF CALHOUN.
GATHERED BY THE REPUBLICAN'S ABL E CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS.
Anniston.

The proposed scheme of the Hot Blast to connect Anniston with St. Clair coal fields, has been pronounced feasible by men of experience in the use of electric power. It is further said that the creeks between here and there would furnish sufficient power; that it would not be necessary to use Coosa river for that purpose. What we lack now is money. Ah! there's the rub. Money makes the mare go, or to express it more elegantly, the speed of the feminine horse is greatly accelerated by a phreatic pocket book or a substantial bank account.
Miss Yaw and Robert Downing have both been with us since my last letter. As a songstress, Miss Yaw has no equal before the public. As a delineator of tragedy, Mr. Downing stands unrivaled. We were pleased to have a number of Jacksonville people with us at the appearance of both of these noted people.
It is well suggested that all of our kind companies consolidate for the purpose of bringing Anniston's many advantages to the notice of the many cotton mill owners North who contemplate moving their factories to the South. We receive enough cotton to run a large number of mills, and if our advantages were properly advertised, there is no doubt that we could secure at least two or three cotton factories within the next two years.
So far as we have heard, no candidate for mayor has announced, but the friends of several of our best citizens are discussing their qualifications in a quiet way, and the field may be full of aspirants within the next thirty days. Under existing financial depression, considering the great responsibility and the small salary attached, the office of mayor is not a very desirable position.
The city court is grinding out justice again after a short rest during the holidays.
Hon. R. B. Kelly is at Montgomery looking after the interests of his constituency.
Hotel Calhoun is doing a rushing business. There is not a better hotel in the South.
The county medical society met here on Tuesday. Doctors from all over the county were present.

Peck's Hill.
Hog killing is the order of the day in this community. J. W. Williams killed 12 hogs from which he got three thousand pounds of meat. W. J. Akragg killed four hogs that made him one thousand pounds of meat. Henry Read, J. H. Gileland and J. F. Sheppard killed recently meat enough to do them for the year. If all our people would raise their own meat we would soon have better times.
J. F. Sheppard has been on a business trip to Center this week.
Married, on the 13th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Grig Martin to Miss Della Wesson, Esquire Little officiating.
Glad to note that Thomas Gilleland is improving after a long illness.
Alexandria.

The death of Mr. W. P. Cooper at Oxford, on the 13th, is deeply regretted by his many friends here. A large concourse of people followed his remains to their last resting place, the cemetery at Mt. Zion church.
Mrs. H. J. Dean of Spartanburg, S. C., after a short visit to her parents, has returned to her home.
The date of the monthly services at the Baptist church has been changed from the first to the fourth Sunday. Rev. Geo. D. Harris begins his pastorate there on the fourth Sunday in January.
Mr. John Wakefield has been confined to his room the past week with a severe cold.
The patrons of the school will be glad to know that the new desks for the school room have arrived. Owing to the week on the A. G. S. road on day last week, the train of that road had to pass over the L. & N. R. R. in going to and from Birmingham.
Mr. W. H. Cooper has purchased the farm and residence of his deceased father.

Oxanna.
The municipal election here last Monday passed off quietly. The issue in the contest was over the sale of whisky. Out of 121 votes polled, the dry ticket headed by S. L. Newsome for Mayor received only 23 votes.
The following ticket was elected: For Mayor—E. H. Hanna. For Councilmen—W. T. Edmundson, H. S. Jewell, F. M. Lewis, H. C. Lynch, Harry Powell, Thos. Wilkerson.
Whitman Hanna headed the wet ticket, he is a prohibitionist.

Meriton.
W. D. Nixon, the week before Christmas, succeeded in recovering most of the property which was stolen from his store. The thief, John Moore, who lived at, or near Choccolocco, was also captured, and now boards with Mr. Clark, until Circuit Court convenes.
J. M. and W. H. Dowdell came in from Texas on the 23rd. of December, on a visit to the old folks.
They returned on last Wednesday.

Meriton.
T. J. Plexco and family, J. D. Abbott, and some others left for Texas on the 5th. There has been an unusual amount of moving among the people of this community.
The late cold snap has injured wheat and oats to some extent.
The weather has been so bad that no farm work has been done as yet. The mercury, last week, in thirty-six hours ran down to forty-six degrees, the greatest change in years.
It will be remembered that last Saturday was very cold and windy. Mrs. P. L. Mulleno and daughter, while traveling in a buggy, had placed a hot stone at their feet to keep them warm. Their clothing caught fire and the accident almost proved serious, as Mrs. Mulleno had her hands burned in extinguishing the fire.
Time, the inexorable, has scored another notch on the tally sheet of the nineteenth century, marked lines on another page of the book of our lives, turned another leaf, and written on its yet unrolled surface 1895. As yet we do not know what else is to be written there. It will partially be what we ourselves determine. Our success will depend largely upon our own effort.

John S. Lane was down from Chattanooga Monday.
John Crook left Monday to visit relatives in Columbus, Georgia.
Miss Sydney B. Lane returned to Shorter College last Tuesday.
D. D. McLeod, Esq., of Anniston, was on our streets Tuesday.
Judge Carthel of Anniston, was in town on legal business Monday last.
J. W. A. Hughes, and Frank Hughes visited Jacksonville this week.
Tom W. Francis has moved his family out to his mill, three miles west of Jacksonville.
John Hanes has been visiting friends and relatives at Jennifer and Oxford this week.
A. M. Landers was in to see us on Thursday, and subscribed for the REPUBLICAN and Constitution.
The North Calhoun Singing Convention will hold its first quarterly meeting at Antioch church next Sunday.
Post Office Inspector Jones was here last Saturday investigating the burglary of the Jacksonville and Meriton post offices.
Mr. S. Ullman, of Anniston, was in to see us Monday. He is an elegant gentleman, and his house has a large trade in this portion of the county.
Col. Frank Bryan, of Anniston, was up last Monday and sworn in as Deputy Sheriff for the Anniston City Court. He fully understands the duties which he is to perform.
N. J. Roberts, who moved from this county to Texas year before last, was here on a visit last week. He has located in Taylor county, and is pleased with his new home.
The commissioners court brought a large crowd of people to Jacksonville this week. There is no trouble to get men to act as overseers of the public roads.
W. F. Kennedy of Pecks Hill, called on the REPUBLICAN this week. "Beef" is one of our thrifty farmers, who lives at home, and has been living there ever since the war.

Porter is the leading reformer in this State in favor of low prices. No matter to what political party you belong, you can save money by buying your supplies from him.
Crow Bros have received new supply of goods and defy any house in Alabama to sell for less money than they are now offering. Go and see what they have and hear their prices.
If you need a good medicine to purify your blood, give nerve strength and build up your entire system, take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It prevents sickness by making pure blood.
Hood's PILLS cure nervous, sick, headache, indigestion and biliousness. 25c.

Do you want a position? Have you anything to sell? Do you want to buy anything? If so, you want to see the REPUBLICAN. One cent a word column.
Bondurant has such a complete line of can goods that he has come to the conclusion that men can live without cooks. This may incur age men to be bachelors, but then go and hear what he has to say about it.
A number of our people who went down to hear Miss Yaw, and to see Mr. Downing, stopped over night at the Hotel Calhoun. All of them speak very kindly of the cordial treatment extended by the popular proprietors of that hostelry. Mr. Gasser is an old Jacksonville boy and he never misses a chance to show every attention to his Jacksonville friends. We wish him all the "good luck" that Fortune can give.
There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzzard, of West Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.
Farmers who desire to borrow money will do well to see Mr. M. B. Wellborn, Anniston. He is an honorable, high-toned gentleman deals honorably and pleasantly. See his notice in our One-cent-a-word column.
Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by dealers.
Says the Birmingham Age-Herald: "Mr. J. T. DeArman, one of the Calhoun county commissioners, and Mr. W. D. Holcomb, both of Anniston, were in the city yesterday. They spent a portion of the day at Pratt mines inspecting the prisoners and looking after the convicts from Calhoun county. There are about thirty convicts in Pratt mines from Calhoun, including both State and county prisoners."

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Thomas, of Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at all the Drug Stores. Regular size 50 and $1.00.

ULLMAN BROS.

Anniston, Alabama.

VICE PRESIDENT STEVENSON has the sympathy of the entire country in his bereavement. His daughter died in North Carolina last week.

CALHOUN county on an average for the past five years has grown more cotton to the acre than any county in the cotton growing States.

THE negroes in this section are contented and happy, and are not dreaming of any colonization scheme. They could not be induced to go to Africa.

To operate a large cotton mill in Jacksonville it would not be necessary to import foreign labor. No better labor could be secured than the sons and daughters of this county.

From the statement of cotton men who handle the bulk of the cotton raised in Alabama, we learn that Calhoun county's staple is equalled by only one county in the State.

When the East and West is extended to Birmingham and Atlanta, and from Jacksonville to Anniston, which the officials of the road say will be done as soon as practicable, Jacksonville's railroad facilities will be greatly improved.

THE legislature now in session should not fail to pass the bill pending to exempt from taxation for ten or twenty years all the new cotton mills located in the state. To be exempt from state, county and municipal tax is an important consideration in the location of a mill.

With a soil which produces the largest average yield of any county in the South, a staple which is very superior, with such a nearness to the coal fields that coal can be delivered for a dollar a ton, with the healthiest climate in the South, Calhoun offers advantages for the manufacture of cotton which are unsurpassed.

If New York can do any thing that Atlanta can't duplicate, it is time for her to do it. The Lexow committee had hardly gotten to work, before Atlanta began to blow a little breeze of the same kind. Three of her detectives have already been suspended, and the police commission and city council are at logger heads as to which shall continue investigations.

THE news comes across the Atlantic that Italy may, within the next few weeks, adopt a republican form of government. Crispi, the present prime minister, will be its president. King Humbert, not insensible to the brewing storm, and realizing that the days of his Kingdom are numbered, has deposited in the London banks the paltry sum of thirty millions of dollars, with the aid of which he hopes to be able to "eke out a miserable existence."

MR. GLADSTONE who retired from political life a short time ago, writes to several of his old political associates, that he will again stand for election to his seat in the house of commons. Nobody knows just what object the "grand old man" has in view, but every one knows that he is not going to give up the quiet, happy life he has been leading for nothing. It is intimated that one cause of his return to politics is his desire to do away with the house of lords. England is ripe for such a measure, and if Gladstone lends his massive intellect to the movement, the closing years of the nineteenth century may witness the most wonderful change in English politics since the days of Magna Charta.

THE energy that the directors of the Cotton States and International Exposition are throwing into the enterprise is remarkable. Not only are they advertising the scheme in South and Central America, but are pushing out into every continent.

We clip the following from an exchange: "The Cotton States and International Exposition is being advertised in every continent. The latest addition to the list of languages made use of is the Arabic. Mr. E. J. Arberry, editor of the KAWKAB AMERICA (Star of America) takes a lively interest in the last issue of his paper. This will circulate wherever the Arabic language is used, and will bring a number of oriental exhibits. Mr. Arberry is a native of Syria, and has a large acquaintance through the Orient."

For bleaching purposes, Jacksonville can furnish a supply of pure, clear water which cannot be surpassed.

EDITOR BROOK, of the Cherokee Sentinel, thinks Bob Mosely is arrogating to himself a little too much authority when he declares in the Birmingham Times that hereafter there will be no fusion with Alabama Republicans. Mosely insists that the Republicans will not consent to again be the tail end to the kite in the state elections.

Quite a number of Calhoun's most enterprising citizens are those who came from the north and east, and who are Republicans. They rank among our best people socially. In business and social circles our people never enquire as to where a man was raised, as to his politics, or on which side he fought during the late war.

SOMETHING new is always happening in France. Perier, the president elected about six months ago, took a notion last week, at breakfast that he had enough (we mean of the presidency) and by four o'clock in the evening he had written his resignation and published it. France, you ought to have a Benny Harrison, he would hold to your presidency until he heard the proverbial owl hoot.

Let the General Assembly take up the election law bill and promptly make the amendments recommended by Governor Gates. Give each party having a candidate in the field the right to select an inspector, clerk and marker of the ballots. Our law must be so changed that hereafter there cannot be even a suspicion of fraud in the management of our elections, and we believe the recommendations of Governor Gates would have such an effect.

THE city of Brooklyn is now in the hands of a mob. The employees of the street car lines in that city came to the conclusion that they were poorly paid, and that they ought to strike. They not only struck, but they forbade other men from taking their places. The street car service is discontinued, and all Brooklyn is in a state of excitement. The mayor has not been able to quell the disturbance, and has been obliged to call on the state for troops.

The South is indeed fortunate that, thus far, in her history she has not been afflicted with strikes and riots of this nature.

If Senator Morgan could be successful in his heroic fight for the Nicaragua Canal, Mobile would become one of the largest ports of the world.

Coal is delivered now in Mobile by rail at less cost than to any other seaport. With the building of the locks on the Warrior River, the first of which locks has just been completed, comes the news that this water route will cut down the expense of delivery of coal fully one half.

If the canal should be opened, the increase in the coaling business would be of such vast importance as to once fill every coal mine in Alabama with laborers, and furnish work to thousands, in transporting the product of the mines to the coast.

Very few citizens of Alabama know any thing about the number, size, and value of the cargoes, that are each year handled at the port of Mobile.

John E. Mitchell, president of the Chamber of commerce, of that city, in his recent annual address, gives some interesting data, from which we give the following: From March 1889 through December 1894, 693 steamships and 557 ships, barks and brigs, drawing from sixteen to twenty three feet, have passed down our channel. Besides the above vessels Mr. Mitchell says that 509 schooners having a draft of from fifteen to seventeen feet have entered the port.

The trade in fruits, with South and Central America has grown wonderfully in the period named. Ten years ago this trade was almost of no value. In 1893, 1,049 cars left the port loaded with fruit, for interior points. In 1894, 3,013 cars went out.

More coconuts are brought to Mobile than to any other port in the United States.

The port has handled, since March 1893, 2,213,673 bunches of bananas, 6,625,787 coconuts, 82,192 pine apples, and 17,285 bunches of plantains.

ORGANS.—A handsome Watters Organ, costing originally $500. Will sell for $300. This is a big bargain. Ayers & Crook.

SCHREER'S SULPHUR SPRINGS.—As a summer resort, this can be made one of the best pieces of property in the State. The sulphur water on this property is unequalled in the State, and unsurpassed in the United States. There are twelve cottages at the Springs, and it is already a popular resort, and with the necessary improvements, can be made the most popular resort in this section. This property contains 119 acres. Will sell the entire property, or a three-fifths interest in it. For particulars write Ayers & Crook.

Col. John H. Caldwell was a visitor to Anniston this week.

Mrs. Clara Walker came over from Gadsden last Saturday.

The "Gondoliers" are rehearsing again, and hope to appear on the boards by Feb'y first.

Miss Madge Wilkerson entertained a party of her friends at her home on Monday evening.

Miss Addie Alexander returned to Jacksonville, Sunday. She has been visiting friends in Rome, Ga.

Miss Sadie Williams returned to Jacksonville on Saturday last, after a visit to friends in several southern cities.

Prof. Glass of Alexandria has had the new desks placed in the building, and the school opened, after the holidays, with seventy-five pupils.

Capt. J. B. Kimball, adjutant for the Georgia Home Insurance Co., spent Friday and Saturday in Jacksonville. His company is a popular one in our town.

Mrs. Vary and her son Elbert, are visiting the family of Judge Crook. Mrs. Vary will remain in Jacksonville a week, when she will leave for a stay of several months in Florida. Miss Ida Crook will probably accompany her.

The valuable lime quarry and sand banks situated about two miles north of Jacksonville, have been purchased by a party of Annistonians headed by Mr. Cobb of that city. This is a very valuable property. The lime is of a very superior quality, and the building sand can not be excelled. The entire firm goes with the sand and quarry.

J. T. Doster of Rome, was on our streets this week.

Miss Annie Crook returned Thursday from the Jackson.

Col. C. P. Ball was in Jacksonville a short while, on Wednesday, 23rd.

D. D. McLeod of Anniston, was in Jacksonville a short while, on Wednesday.

Mr. W. B. Sadler of Cartersville, was here a few days since on a visit to Dr. Ayers.

Dr. and Mrs. Douthett were here a few days since on a visit to the family of Dr. Linder.

Quitman Read has moved his family to Jacksonville, and occupies the Land residence.

John Fomey, Esq., of Birmingham, was here last Saturday with his host of friends.

Miss Morris, the music teacher in the White Plains school, spent part of last week with her father here.

Mr. Daniel P. Gunnels, one of Calhoun's best citizens, died suddenly at his home in Oxford this week.

William Ferguson, of Sacramento, Cal., and Mrs. Dr. Scurry, Piedmont, are here visiting Mrs. Crow.

Owing to the press of other matter, we are forced to leave out several contributions this week. They will appear next week.

The reception extended to the Guitars, Mandolin and Banjo Club, by the Misses Alexander last week, was a very pleasant affair.

C. R. Stewart killed five wild turkeys Monday morning at one shot. This makes him the champion turkey hunter of this section.

Young Stovall, who is in jail here charged with the murder of Martin, has decided that it is best for him not to eat, and has eaten nothing for the past ten days.

Mr. J. A. Gaboury has sold his interest in the Macon sewerage contract, and he and family will return to Jacksonville at an early date. We are glad to have this excellent family return.

The minutes of the Calhoun County Baptist Association are now ready. Where churches can conveniently do so, they will please send to the REPUBLICAN office during the next week and get them.

Services at the Baptist Church Sunday. Sunday School half past nine o'clock. Preaching at 11 o'clock by Dr. M. H. Lane, subject "The Temptation of Peter." You are earnestly invited to attend these services.

Dr. Lane will deliver his lecture, "A Knight's Armor," in the opera house in Anniston next Tuesday night. This is indeed a fine lecture, and the people of Anniston will be pleased with it. As a lecturer, Dr. Lane has few equals.

Geo. P. Ide, and his friend, Mr. Rutter of St. Johnburg, Vt., who has been visiting him in his Jacksonville home, left on Tuesday for Memphis, New Orleans, and other Southern cities.

Mr. Rutter is a most estimable gentleman, and his acquaintance in Jacksonville will be glad to learn that he will stop over in our town on his way back to Vermont.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Bazzard, of West Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

Contractor Geo. W. Dowling carried about a dozen carpenters up to Jacksonville this afternoon to finish the erection of building for the Jacksonville oil mill. Among them were George Bell, J. H. Nunnally and R. R. Nesbit.—Hot Blast.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life long, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by dealers.

To those who subscribed for the Republican and Constitution together, and who have not received the Constitution, we wish to say that the cause of the delay has been on account of the Constitution not sending the subscription blanks to this office. We want every one to be represented in the Prize Contest and were waiting for the proper forms on which to send in the guesses. Subscriptions have all been sent in now, however, and the papers will be received from this time.

COUNTY NEWS

FROM ALL SECTIONS OF CALHOUN.

GATHERED BY THE REPUBLICAN'S ABLE CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS.

Alexandria.

Messrs McLeod and Pelham of Anniston, were here last week attending Justice Court.

Mr. W. W. Whiteside of Anniston, paid Alexandria a business visit one day this week.

Mr. W. H. Cooper spent a day among his Alexandria friends this week.

Dr. Elrod, of Collinsville, has located in Alexandria, to practice his profession.

Dr. Newman, the presiding elder, filled the pulpit at the Methodist Church Sunday night.

Mrs. W. P. Cooper, who has been quite ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kirby, is improving.

Mrs. Clark has received a telegram announcing the death of her sister, Mrs. McKinney. She had many friends in this county, who will remember her as Miss Jennie Sheild, and who will learn of her death with regret.

Miss Williams of White Plains, and Miss Annie Peace of East Lake, have been visiting Mrs. Norris Woodruff.

The party Thursday night, complimentary to the visiting young ladies was much enjoyed by the young people.

Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams and baby, of Piedmont, came over Monday, 22nd, to visit Miss Ida Adams, who is making her home with Mrs. Mosely. Mrs. Williams and baby will stay several days.

Some of our people are selling out to go to Louisiana. Money is scarce and times hard but Alabama is the place for me. With health and management, a man can make a good living here.

Mr. Mosely's saw mill is not running this week on account of lack of logs at mill. No hauling can be done on account of the recent rains.

I hope our road horses will be able to do better work on our roads than ever before. We have the foundation for good roads. They only need to be worked right, and a reasonable amount of money allowed.

Oxford.

The following interesting item as to what a Cherokee farmer did last year we copy from a correspondence in the Montgomery Advertiser from Oxford:

A farmer whose home and plantation are about four miles east of Oxford, in Cherokee county, Va., ran about 1,500 bushels of corn, 18,000 pounds of fodder, 16,000 pounds of hay, twenty-six bales of cotton, 225 bushels of sweet potatoes, about 200 gallons sorghum, and made enough to make 500 gallons, but did not save all of it. He raised about 100 bushels of peas, 12,000 pounds of fodder, 10,000 pounds of hay, all of the sorghum, seventy-five bushels sweet potatoes and eighty bushels of peas, and 2,300 pounds of pork, the others tenants on his place making the balance as stated above.

It is scarcely necessary to say that this farmer is making some money, above support every year, and pays cash for all he or his family buys, and is improving the fertility and value of his place every year. But he is so modest he preferred I should not put his name in the paper.

Morrisville.

Miss Carrie Morris' school opened the 7th, with thirty pupils, and has increased to forty-nine since that time.

There has been a considerable amount of moving done among tenants, in this settlement recently. Morrisville has been reinforced by four families and lost only one.

Mrs. M. C. Bates is talking of moving to Tennessee about the first of February.

Messrs Thos. Aderhold and T. H. Clements have bought a new saw mill from the Morris Mfg. Co., and are going to put it in operation near Peaceburg.

A goodly number of Egyptians were visiting their many friends in Morrisville last Sunday. Come again, boys, we like your company.

Mr. W. R. Helm, of Blue Nose, visited his friend, Homer Reid of Morrisville last Sunday.

Rev. F. M. Jones preached at Cameron Springs Academy last Sunday.

Our Sunday Schools do not seem to be flourishing; they must have gone into winter quarters.

The REPUBLICAN is the oldest newspaper in the county, and has always been a power in the county for good. Since it changed hands it has been improved, and now that there has been added to its editorial staff a lawyer and farmer, we are expecting much from the "Old Reliable."

Chateauf.

We regret that we are to lose two of our best citizens, who will be greatly missed.

Capt. Wm. Bell, our leading Sunday School worker, has traded farms and will move down near Anniston. This family carries with them the best wishes of the people of this community.

Mr. John Ingram and family are moving to Anniston. This deprives our neighborhood of other "bright lights" in the church, and our loss is Anniston's gain.

Mrs. Ott Smith of Texas, who is here spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Nunnally, is not very well.

The enterprising young Browns of Ragland, spent last Sunday at their father's near Chateauf.

Mrs. J. W. Pearce and son Henry braved the mud and drove to our town one day last week from Tampa to visit her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Tarvin.

Mr. Joe Tarvin of Sugar Valley, Ga., is on a visit to his brother, Mr. A. J. Tarvin, of this place.

Fergusonville.

Mess. Shapson, Emerson, and Howard are engaged in burning lime to be used in compost heaps as a fertilizer.

Messrs Clements and Aderhold are hard at work getting their saw mill in position. They will soon "blow whistle."

Rouse & Co., continue to run their mill on full time, making lumber at a lively rate.

Mr. J. A. Sides who bought land in North Peaceburg, is making considerable improvements. He is patrolling the saw mill liberally, and is building new cribs, fences, etc.

Messrs Simmons and Sons are making a new fence around their farm.

Prof. Persons' school is well attended, the pupils making admirable advancement, and the patrons are well pleased.

Our genial Zhu Acker the mercantile solicitor, comes home occasionally, and with a broad smile on his face, seems to be whistling "I'll be all smiles tonight love."

Mr. Tom Lee, of Anniston, was out last Sunday to meet his old friends in this vicinity.

Merrellton.

Rev. T. S. Nabors, from South Alabama was visiting relatives in this section last week.

Joe Reeves, son of J. M. Reeves is very sick, and is not expected to live.

We are in favor of a county fair, to be held in Calhoun county this fall, though we hardly think this will induce congress to do any thing for our farmers.

Weavers

Water and mud have been plentiful for the last week.

The farmers of this section are busy fixing for another crop.

Mr. T. G. Ledbetter of Piedmont, is visiting his father at this place.

Mr. B. W. Armstrong of Collins, Ala., was up Sunday to see Miss Annie Peace.

Miss Josie Williams returned to her home at White Plains, after a short visit to her friends at Weavers and Peaceburg. We hope Miss Williams enjoyed her visit.

Miss Clemmie Weaver of the Southern Female University, was up Saturday, visiting her father and mother.

A few of the young people went over to Prof. Alexander's on Monday evening and enjoyed the nice music by the Weavers Station band.

The patrons of the school gathered last Monday, and worked the walk that leads to the school house.

Prof. Alexander has a fine school. Success to him.

Some of our young men are getting very uneasy about their girls. They have not heard from them for some time. Now, girls, do write them a letter. Don't hold them in anxious expectancy any longer. It's too hard on the boys.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irvine, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began the use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all kidney and liver troubles and gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c for large bottle. At all the drug stores.

Friday and Saturday last were busy days in Judge Crook's Court. Judge, George, Henry, Newt, Tom, and Bob, of the House of Champions, Will Gidley, Ollie Williams and Bill Wilson were given a hearing in the burglary cases against them. All the defendants were acquitted except Jake and Walter Champion and Will Gidley. Jake was placed under a $500 bond in some cases. Will Gidley and Walter Champion were given a $200 bond in one case each. Gidley made bond and is now at liberty.

E. J. Patterson, who was accused of horse-stealing, near Duke's, was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.
